

Infant research and clinical implications

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Introduction .....  | 95  |
| Implicit knowledge in infant development and therapeutic context,Massimo Ammaniti .....                                    | 96  |
| Integrating kleinian theory and intersubjective infant research observingprojective identification, Stephen Seligman ..... | 110 |
| The expanding world of Edward Tronick, Beatrice Beebe,Frank M. Lachmann .....                                       | 136 |
| The role of the other: intersubjective psychic transmissions and pathologicalstructures of the self, Giuseppe Moccia ..... | 148 |